30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, near Piscataway, Md. on or about the 1st day of March, 1848, a dark mulatto man named Nick, five feet ten or eleven inches high, slender made, a little deaf, speaks a little through his nose, has been in the habit of wearing rings in his ears, but may have taken them out to avoid discovery. Said negro Nick has a wife on Mr. Thomas A. Diggs's land, near Fort Washington, and is probably harbored in that neighborhood. I will give the above reward of Thirty Dollars, if taken out of the State of Maryland, and Twenty if taken in the State, more than ten miles from home—it within ten miles of home, Ten Dollars.
JNO. H. BEANES.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

THE subscriber, on Monday the 1st inst. a person calling himself
Mr. PEYTON,
and obtained a horse and gig on hire, as he said, to go to Ellicott's Mills, and return in the afternoon of the same day; and as he has not yet returned, there is strong reason to believe that his intention is to swindle me out of my property. He is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, apparently about 25 or 30 years of age, of genteel appearance, and well calculated to deceive.
The horse is a grey, about 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, has a switch tail, a speck on the right eye, and moves swiftly. The gig has a green body, carriage and wheels black, the lining of blood cloth, red stuff top, linings, plated double—outside joints.
I will give the above reward for the recovery of the horse and gig, and the detection of the scoundrel, or 20 dollars for the horse and gig only, and all reasonable expenses if delivered to me, No. 26, North Liberty street, Baltimore.

FOR THE GAZETTE.
TO A ZEPHYR.

Sweet, dear little breeze, on thy wings of the west;
Soft brushing the dew on the sun-pearled dew;
Canst thou bear one poor sigh of an ill-fated breast,
To the dear lovely maid of yon far distant vale.

O swift be thy speed to yon wild woodland grove,
Where the smiles of thy Flora bedeck the sweet green;
Where thoughtless of fate, and first conscious of love,
My heart with despair still remembers the scene.

O fleet be thy course, till its tall head appear:
By the rose of thy love I implore thee to fly,
And sip with thy breath the disconsolate tear
That obscures the bright beam of yon hope forlorn eye.

O blow not, rude winds, with unmerciful gale;
O spare the soft locks of her auburn dark hair!
O dye not her fair cheek with winter's cold pale!
Too oft it is wan with the hues of despair.

Mr. Snowden,
I am one of those gallant young fellows who cannot but admire the pre-eminent display of female beauty in the present day, when accompanied with a decorous apparel—and I must beg leave to express myself perfectly satisfied with the prevailing mode in which the generality of our fair countrywomen attire themselves.

It has afforded me infinite entertainment to read the fastidious remarks of some of your correspondents, and admire their presumption to adjust the drapery of our ladies.
I would not on any account that we should revert to the ancient fustian dogs—only imagine yourself present at a ball in those times, where the ladies were seen joking about as if they were instigated merely by some mechanical power; but now, air, every step has expression, every motion animates and enlivens in the highest degree. Do but observe the contrast at the harpsichord or piano—every touch now seems to convey a sentiment, and fills the mind with ecstasy and delight, which formerly was incapable of any inspiration beyond the unmeaning noise produced by an automaton.

I must really beg, Mr. Editor, that you will not encourage such correspondents; for in my opinion, our belles, except in some occasional instances, were never more becomingly, or with a greater regard to propriety, dressed than at present—and to think of introducing those formerly hideous and exploded fashions, would be at once to deprive them of that ease and nature elegance which is altogether so fascinating and irresistible.—Do, pray, publish my letter, that the gentle and amiable readers of your paper may be assured they will always find a firm advocate in, sir, Your most obedient servant.

An eastern Editor some time ago, proposed to advertise such of his patrons as neglected to pay their subscription. It appears from the following that the plan is in operation; [and we shall not be displeased to see it in general use.]

RUNAWAY PATRONS!
Printers look out for Rogues.

Elihu Chamberlain, Ebenezer Ferry, and Joseph Matterson, have absconded from this place in the course of the last winter, indebted to me for the Susquehan-nah Centinel.

I warn all persons, printers especially, not to trust said runaways, as they are person in whom no dependence can be placed, and who have forfeited all claims upon society, and who will cheat all persons who deal with them. It is supposed they have all gone to Ohio.

A RECIPE FOR COURAGE.
A gallant soldier was once heard to say, that his only measure for courage was this:
Upon the first fire I immediately look upon myself as a dead man—I then fight out the remainder of the day as peacefully as I can as a dead man should be. All the limbs which I carry out of the field I regard as so much gained, or so much saved out of the fire.

ALEXANDRIA
TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4.

TO PRINTERS.

A printers' warehouse has lately been established in the city of New-York, by Mr.
Richard Holt. We have seen a list of more than 100 articles which he has constantly on hand, and which comprises every variety in an extensive printing apparatus. As agent for Mr. James R. Stoddard and Messrs.
Reich, Starr & Co. Philadelphia, and Mr.
E. White, New-York, he will furnish type from their foundries, at the original cost, and every description of paper will be sold at the manufacturers' prices. Such a warehouse, where a complete office can be furnished at the shortest notice, has long been wanted in the U. States; and its location in New-York, which has a more direct trade with the principal towns in the union than any other sea-port, is so much the more convenient to the profession generally. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Holt, and knowing his ability to execute all orders to the perfect satisfaction of those who may deal with him, we feel a pleasure in recommending him to the patronage of printers and stationers generally.

Mr. Snowden,
During the present dearth of news, I send you an extract from an English paper containing a sketch of the manner of doing business in Scotland with the London commercial traveller. It contains much humor and a good deal of truth, with a dash of the caricature.

"It is not as in England, where, when an article is offered for sale, it is immediately purchased, or at once rejected as being too dear, but here there is a long haggling and cheapering of every article successively offered. The relation of my transactions with one man will serve to shew the general mode of doing business. I call and inform him who I am, and request him to fix a time for the transaction of our business; he bids me call again, which I do several times without doing anything. He wishes to be the last I do with, but all cannot be the last, and all have wished to be so. After he objects to the price of the articles I offer, he will not buy. I try to induce him, but do not offer to make any reduction." Says he, "you are over dear, sir, I can buy the same goods ten per cent. lower; if you like to take off ten per cent. I'll take some of these." I tell him a reduction of the price is out of the question, and put my samples of the article aside; but the Scotchman wants it. "Well sir, terrible price; but as I am out of it at present, I'll just take a little till I can be supplied cheaper, but you must take off five per cent." "Sir," says I, "would you not think me an unconscionable knave to ask five per cent. more than I intend to take?" He laughs at me.
"Hoot, hoot, man! do you expect to get what you ask? Guide Lord and I was to get I ask, I would soon be rich. Come, come, I'll give you within two or a half of your air price, and you shall have it. You will be well paid." I tell him that I never make any deduction from the price I first demand, and that an adherence to the rule saves much trouble to both parties. "Well, well," says he, "since you must have it all your own way, I must e'en take the article, but I think you are over keen." So much for haggling and selling; then comes the settlement of the account. "How much discount do you take off, sir?" "Discount! why sir, you cannot expect discount after the account has been standing a twelvemonth." "Indeed, but I do expect discount: pay siller without discount! na, na, sir, that's no way here; ye must deduct five per cent." I tell him that I will take no discount at all. "Weel, sir, I'll give ye no money at all." Rather than go without a settlement, I at last agree to take off two and a half per cent. from the amount, which is accordingly deducted. "I have ten shillings down against you for short measure, and fifteen shillings for damages."
"Indeed, these are heavy deductions, but if you say that you shall lose to that amount, I suppose I must allow it." "Oh, ay, it's all right.—Then, sir, here's eight and four pence for pack-sheet, and thirteen shillings for carriage and postage." These last items astonish me. "What sir," say I,
"are we to pay all the charges of your business?" But I find that if I do not allow these to be taken off, he will not pay his account, so I acquiesce, resolving within myself that since these unfair deductions are made at settlement, it would be quite fair to charge an additional price to cover the extortion.

"I now congratulate myself on having concluded my business with the man, but am disappointed." "Have ye a stamp?" asks he. "A stamp, for what?" "Just to draw you a bill," replies he. "A bill my good sir! I took off two and a half per cent. on the faith of being paid in cash." But he tells me, it is the custom of the place to pay in bills, and sits down and draws a bill three months after date payable at his own shop! "And what am I to do with this?"
"Oh, you may take it to Sir William Forbes and he will discount it for you on paying him three months interest." "And what can I do with his notes?" "He'll give you a bill on London at forty five days." "So, sir, after allowing twelve months' credit, and two and a half per cent. discount, and exorbitant charges which you have no claim

DINNER TO CAPTAIN JACOB JONES, OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

Captain Jones having visited Smyrna, his native place, after an absence of twenty years, a dinner was given to him on Saturday the 25th inst. by the inhabitants of that place. The union of all parties evinced the satisfaction which every one felt at the presence of that distinguished officer, who in the vicissitudes of his long service, has not ceased to be remembered with sentiments of esteem by the friends and companions of his early years. Indeed, the various actions of Captain Jones, independently of all private feeling, make him an object of public interest. His sufferings at Tripoli—his victory over the Frolic, and the subsequent capture by a seventy-four in the moment of victory, are circumstances of general interest, calculated to excite a general feeling of admiration and esteem.

The ship Importer, capt. Dingley, ar-

Among our London extracts this day, will be found the address of the Speaker of the House of Commons to the Prince Regent, the Speech of the Prince Regent dissolving the Parliament, and the Proclamation directing the election of a new parliament.

One of our papers states that twelve hundred persons have emigrated this season from Guernsey to America, mostly to the United States. Of these, one thousand are natives of Guernsey—a great number, adds the paper, when it is considered that the whole of the population of that island is not reckoned higher than 19,000.

The Traveller of the 11th of June con-the following are extracts:—"In consequence of what has been said on the subject of the Spanish Royal Decree, relative to the establishment of entrepôts, for the commercial communication between Europe and South America, I hasten to assure you, that the temporary suspension of that measure is not intended as a revocation of the Royal Decree: but that, as the regulations under which the decree is to be executed had not been finally arranged, those merchants who were anxious and impatient to export their goods to America, without waiting for the publication of the export tariffs, have been obliged to comply with the old customs, as a measure ad interim.

"In addition to this information, on which you may rely, I have to state, that so far from there being any idea whatever (at Madrid) of a revocation of the Royal Ordinance to which I allude, a very prevalent rumor circulates there, that regulations are about to be adopted by which a direct communication will be opened between the commercial powers of Europe and the colonies of Spain.

"I trust this communication will afford universal satisfaction, and remove every unfavorable impression which misrepresentation may have occasioned, on the subject of the indulgent decree of the King of Spain."

The Rt. Hon. George Canning arrived at Liverpool from London, on the 16th of June. He was received with great eclat by the people of Liverpool—and delivered an address to the immense multitude assembled before the house of John Bolton, esq. in Duke street. He is again a candidate for member of parliament, to represent that city. Mr. Canning's competitors are general Gascoigne and the Earl of Sefton.— The election was to commence the following day.

The election writs for members of the House of Commons are made returnable on the 4th of August, by which time all electioneering business must be at an end.

The Queen of England still remained ill, but was improving.

The Lord Sidmouth, Capt. Gunner, from

HOUSE OF LORDS.
Wednesday, June 10.

PROROGATION AND DISSOLUTION OF PARLIA-MENT.

This being the day on which it was expected the Prince Regent would in person prorogue the Parliament, a prodigious multitude of persons, eager to behold the procession without, and anxious to be witness of the ceremony within doors, crowded the streets from Charing-cross to the Parliament House, all the avenues to which, before 1 o'clock, were rendered hardly accessible, while the seats appropriated to the Peeresses and their daughters, were so over-thronged that many of the ladies were obliged to content themselves with sitting to the Painted Chamber.

At a few minutes past two o'clock the Prince Regent, attended by the great officers and Ministers of state; the foreign Ambassadors and various other strangers of distinction being also present, entered the House, and took his seat on the Throne.— Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Ulster of the Black Rod, was then sent to the Commons, requiring the attendance of that House forthwith at the Bar.

Soon after the Commons, with the Speaker at their head, presented themselves accordingly, when the Speaker addressed his Royal Highness in the words following:—

May it please your Royal Highness—We his Majesty's faithful Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, attend your Royal Highness with our last Bill of Supply.

In obedience Sir to your Royal Highness's recommendation, we have not failed to apply our anxious and continued attention to the state of the public income and expenditure, and heavy as unquestionably the weight and pressure still remain upon our finances, we have the satisfaction to observe, that the revenue in its most important branches is gradually and progressively improving.

Among the various duties, Sir, in which we have been engaged, there is none perhaps that could have devolved upon us, more interesting in itself or more in union we are persuaded with the sincere and unfeigned sentiments of all classes of His Majesty's subjects, than the duty of adopting the necessary measures for the fulfilment of those engagements, which your Royal Highness was graciously pleased to communicate to us, as having been concluded with the courts of Spain and Portugal, on the subject of the Slave Trade.

Nor, Sir, have we been less attentive to another subject of public importance, earnestly recommended by your Royal Highness to our early and particular consideration—the deficiency which has so long existed in the number of places of Public Worship belonging to the Established Church. To the remedy of this deficiency we have most readily afforded large and liberal assistance, well convinced that the first and dearest interest of this country, its truest happiness, its soundest prosperity, its surest independence, its proudest and most substantial national glory are all involved and blended intimately and insepar-ably in the religious and moral habits of its people.

The bill, Sir, which it is now my duty humbly to present your Royal Highness is intituled, "An act for applying certain monies therein mentioned for the services of the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen," to which with all humility we pray His Majesty's Royal assent.

At the close of his speech the Speaker presented the Appropriation bill, as having passed the Commons, and in order to its receiving the Royal assent.

The Prince Regent then gave the Royal assent to the Appropriation, the Aliens, the Slave Trade, Abolition Amendment, the Irish Fisheries, the Poor Education, and several private Bills, and then closed the Session with the following speech:—

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with the deepest regret that I am again under the necessity of announcing to you, that no alteration has occurred in the state of His Majesty's lamented indisposition.

I continue to receive from foreign Powers the strongest assurance of their friendly dispositions towards this country, and of their desire to maintain the general tranquillity.

I am fully sensible of the attention which you have paid to the many important objects which have been brought before you.

I derive peculiar satisfaction from the measure which you have adopted, in pursuance to my recommendation, for augmenting the number of places of public worship belonging to the Established Church; and I confidently trust that this measure will be productive of the most beneficial effects on the religion and moral habits of the people.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, I thank you for the supplies which you have granted to me for the service of the present year; and I highly approve of the steps you have taken with a view to the reduction of the Unfunded Debt.

I am happy to be able to inform you that the Revenue is in a course of continued improvement.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

On closing this Session, I think it proper to inform you that it is my intention forthwith to dissolve the present, and to give directions for calling a new Parliament. In making this communication, I cannot refrain from adverting to the important change which has occurred in the situation of this country and of Europe since I first met you in this place.

At that period, the dominion of the common enemy had been so widely extended over the Continent, that resistance to his power was by many deemed to be hopeless; and in the extremities of Europe alone was such resistance effectually maintained.

By the unexampled exertions which you enabled me to make in aid of countries neutrally contending for independence, and by the spirit which was kindled in so many nations, the continent was at length delivered from the most galling and oppressive tyranny under which it had ever laboured; and I had the happiness, by the blessing of Divine Providence, to terminate, in conjunction with His Majesty's August Allies, the most eventful and sanguinary contest in which Europe had for centuries been engaged with unparalleled success and glory.

The prosecution of such a contest for so many years, and more particularly the efforts which marked the close of it, have been followed within our own country, as throughout the rest of Europe, by considerable internal difficulties and distress.
But deeply as I felt for the immediate pressure upon my Majesty's people, I nevertheless looked forward without dismay, having always the fullest confidence in the soli-dity of the resources of the British Empire, and in the relief which might be expected from a continuance of peace, and from the patience, public spirit, and energy of the nation.

These expectations have not been disappointed.

The improvement in the internal circumstances of the country is happily manifest, and promises to be steadily progressive; and I feel a perfect assurance that the continued loyalty and exertions of all classes of His Majesty's subjects will confirm these growing indications of national prosperity, by promoting obedience to the Laws and attachment to the Constitution, from which all our blessings have been derived.

Dissolution of Parliament.—Shortly after the delivery of the Speech of the Prince Regent, the Lord Chancellor, who had approached the throne to receive the royal commands on the occasion, came forward and addressed both Houses in the following terms:—

My Lords and Gentlemen,
It is the will and pleasure of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, that this Parliament be now dissolved; and this Parliament is dissolved accordingly.

The Commons then withdrew, and the Lords separated.

Among the illustrious strangers who witnessed the ceremony, were the Dukes of Cambridge, and his Imperial Highness the Grand Duke Michael of Russia.

FROM THE WEST INDIES.

Our attentive correspondents in Kingston, (Ja.) have forwarded to us by the British scho. Friendship, capt. Willey, arrived on Saturday, regular files of the Jamaica Courant, and Kingston Chronicle, to the 9th of July. From these papers we have copied much interesting intelligence respecting the operations of the contending powers of Spain and her revolted colonies, both by sea and land. It is with regret that we observe, from these accounts, Gen.
Bolívar has lost the confidence of his fellow soldiers in the cause of liberty and independence.

Kingston, (Ja.) July 2.
His Majesty's frigate La Pique, of 44 guns, capt. McKellar, arrived at Port Royal yesterday, from a cruise, off Aux Cayes.
La Pique ran between Altavilla, Isle of Beata, and the Frisates, rounding cape Palo, without seeing a single Independent flag, and stood into Jacmel, and along the coast as far as Aux Cayes.

It appears from the information obtained by La Pique, that the Independent fleet had departed into different divisions, owing as is stated, to a dissension between Bronson and Jolly, as to the right of the person entitled to be chief in command. The Spanish squadron lately ascertained to have arrived in the West Indies, consisting of two corvettes, two brigs, and two schoners, are said to have compelled the Independent cruisers to leave the station they had taken to the northward between St.
Bartholomew and Santa Cruz, but no action took place at the time of the meeting.

The Haytian squadron composed of a sloop of war, a brig, and three armed vessels, were by the last accounts cruising between the Isle of Vache and Jacmel.

The British ship Superior, Wm. Good, master, belonging to St. Johns, N. B. which sailed from Demarara on the 30th April last, for Turks Island, was fired at and brought to, on the 8th of May, off the west end of Porto Rico, by a private scho. called the Condor, commanded by a black man named Domingo, and after being boarded, was robbed of the ship's jolly boat, two casks of water, and a quantity of sugar.
Capt. Good and six of his crew were detained on board the scho. for nearly four hours, while the remainder of the crew the ship were compelled to give up their clothes to the marauders, who threatened to stab them in case they resisted. Three men who were confined in bonds, were permitted to proceed for her destination.

They stated the names to be Wm. Whitehead, Peter James Bradford, and Samuel Hins, and gave the following account of the scho. which they had just left, viz.—that she was called the Condor, commanded by Jose Llan, under the orders of Admiral Brión; that Wm. Whitehead was 2d officer; but that on the night of the first of May, at Margaritha, while capt. Llan was on shore, the crew rose on these men, and put them in confinement, cut the cable of the scho.
and put by sea, declaring their intention not to respect the flag of any nation. On the evening of the 2d of May, a French scho. from Puerto Cabello to Martinico, was boarded by the Condor, and several ar-cles taken from her, and some prisoners sent on board her. On the 6th she made St. Cruz, and plundered a Danish scho. bound to Curacao. On the 7th boarded a Danish scho. from Porto Rico to St. Domingo, with cattle, and took from her one bullock, three hogs, one sheep, and some por-tury, having previously brought her to anchor under Crab Island. Observing two scho. in the offing, went in chase, but a nearing one of them, and perceiving the Venezuelan flag flying, the Condor's course was altered, and she made all sail to windward. On the 8th they observed a ship, which they came up with at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and which proved to be the Superior.

Extract of a letter from Port-au-Prince, dated the 24th ult.

"A letter from Admiral Brien, dated on board the Vittoria, off the Island of Mona, says—I am at present off here, with a large squadron, and was followed for some days by the Spanish squadron, superior to mine by one frigate, but am determined in a few days when joined by some of my vessels to attack them. Our worthy friend Bolívar, was always victorious up to the 27th ult. and I hope to join him soon with 10,000 men."

Brien has since been joined by Aury's squadron, and reports that the latter have taken possession of the Island of Beata.

"A corvette, brig, and two schooners belonging to this place have been cruising off the south side of St. Domingo. They have been extremely successful in taking several pirates with their prizes."

June 3.

Extract of a letter from St. Thomas's, dated June 12, from an Officer of rank in the Independent service, to a gentleman in this city.

"I have waited with patience at this colony for the result of the last campaign, which began at Calaboa. It has been the most disastrous, and such as was to have been expected from the management of Mr. Bolívar. After coming within 16 leagues of the capital, he was continually allowing himself to be beaten in detail by the Spaniards, committing blunders in every step which would not be passed over in a Corporal, and has consequently been repulsed to the right bank of the Apure, after having sacrificed by his ignorance the fine army which the different Generals of the province had placed under his command. The last accounts from the Oronoco state that the people began to open their eyes regarding this hero; and God grant that we may at last, after so many sacrifices, learn to set a just value upon his abilities."

"It is astonishing that with a force of 9000 men, well armed and provided with every necessary material, we have not been enabled to drive from the country a band of Spaniards! But such are the consequences of the disorder which character-ises all our operations."

Curacao, June 13.

Extract of a letter dated Puerto Cabello, May 8.

"The traitors Bolívar and Paez, who, in consequence of the capture of Guayana, had succeeded in uniting their forces, on the town of St. Fernando, and penetrated thro' Calaboa to the very interior of these provinces, elated with some trifling advantages gained over some parties of troops of the country, have been afterwards completely beaten in nine brilliant actions given in the towns of Sombrero, Moracay, La Puerta, El Cayuan, Orta, El Rincon de los Torres, the Sarama of Cogocho, the mountain of los Patos and Nuliras, with the loss of almost all their troops chiefs and officers, and reduced to a most desperate and miserable impotence; the advantages derived therefrom by the arms of the king are upwards of 4,500 of the enemy killed and prisoners, more than 3000 muskets, 12 colors, 7 field pieces, 240 loads of ammunition, 42 drums, upwards of 3000 horses, and 1100 mules, and all their baggage and effects brought from Guayana. Bolívar's secretary and a great number of officers, have been taken prisoners, among them several foreigners who had arrived from Europe, deluded by thevellers."

To the friends of Humanity.

AN aged, infirm, and widowed mother, is desirous to receive information of THOMAS BURTON CARTER, an only son, concerning whom she has not heard any thing, on which reliance can be placed, for nearly three years. He removed from this place to the state of Ohio about five years ago. The last certain account she had from him, was from Cadiz in that state. He is about twenty five years of age; by trade a tailor. Vague rumour has recently pronounced him dead. A letter communicating information relative to him, directed to Henry Tutwiler, P. M. at this place, would confer a peculiar kindness on an afflicted woman.

Editors of Newspapers generally, are intreated to give this article a place in their columns a few weeks.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near New-Port, Maryland, on Friday, the 25th May, a Negro man named GERARD, about 5 feet high, of a dark complexion, about 30 years of age, stout made, limps a little when he walks; had on when he went away a country cloth jacket and trousers about half worn and coarse hat, but he may change his dress, as he has free connections a little below St. Thomas's Manor, at Nace Butler's. He has a wife at Thomas Jennifer's Quarters, near Port Tobacco, and calls himself GERARD BUTLER. He took a black mare with him, which he has since left at his father's, the said Nace's. He has been seen within a few weeks in Alexandria. Whoever takes up said Negro, and secures him in any jail so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

Plaster Land.

The subscriber offers for sale a FARM of 430 acres, being part of the tract whereon he resides in Fauquier county, Va. More than one-third of this Farm is in timber, and is land of the richest quality. The cleared land is in good heart, having had the advantage of a clover lay, and no soil being more susceptible of plaster improvement. He would also dispose of a lot of 50 acres, the whole of which is in timber, and is first-rate tobacco and meadow land. On this lot has been erected well built saw mill, contiguous to which at the confluence of Broad and Mill rivers is a most valuable site for a merchant mill. No property is better worth the attention of a person wishing to engage in such business. On the first mentioned farm are a commodious overseer's house, a new barn, stables, corn houses and negro quarters, and about 20 acres of timothy meadow.

600 acres of Land for sale.

THIS Tract is situated in Westmoreland county, Virginia, adjacent to Mr. Garnett Hunter's Plantation, and contiguous to the waters of the Potomac. The neighborhood is good, and the soil is very fertile, and well adapted for building. A considerable proportion of the land is well timbered, besides a good deal of cedar, pine and other wood, sufficiently convenient to make it an object for those who may be disposed to send to market—it is nearly equidistant from Baltimore, Washington and Norfolk.

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to ROGER JONES,
Alexandria.
Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 3 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wiley's, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered, and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition. For terms, apply to PAUL C. JONES, Esq. in Leesburg, Va. or to R. JONES.
March 30

For Sale,

A VALUABLE FARM, containing between six and seven hundred acres of land, the greater part of which is in timber, and adjoins the land of Charles Thift and Edmond J. Lee, Esq. and extends to the road from Leesburg to the mill lately known as Miller's Mill, on Goose Creek; and not more than three quarters of a mile from the turnpike road now making. The furthest boundary of this land is not more than three miles from Leesburg, and the nearest, which is in timber, not more than one mile and a half. The timbered land will be laid off into 10 or 15 acre lots, reserving a sufficient quantity for the land now cleared and in cultivation. It is unnecessary to say that this land is as well adapted to plaster as any in that part of the country; and if not sold at private sale previous to the September Leesburg court, will be then offered at public sale, and the terms made known on the day.

There are fifteen or twenty negroes residing on the farm that may be purchased with it if wanted.

Land for Sale.

IN pursuance of a decree of the Equity Court of Charles county, dated the 9th day of January last, the subscriber will offer at public sale in Port-Tobacco, on Thursday the 20th day of August next, the following tracts of land, lying in said county, to wit: Commerce, about 2 miles from Port-Tobacco to Kennedy's ferry, containing 159 acres, of which more than two-thirds is covered with fine thriving White Oak; Theobald's purchase, containing 102 acres—this land adjoins those of Capt. Perry, near Wade's Bay, and is nearly all in woods; and one other tract near to Durham church, adjoining the lands of Thomas Price, Esq. being part of a tract called Britt's Good Chance, containing 91 acres.

The terms of the sale will be that the purchasers give bonds with approved security payable in three equal annual payments from the day of sale, and with interest from the said day of sale, the rents for the present year reserved to the present owners, & on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money and not before, the trustee will by a good and sufficient deed convey to the purchaser or purchasers the lands to him, her or them sold, according to the directions in said decree.

BILL IN CHANCERY.

versus

James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Biorham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to show cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

June 27 Th2m

Dr. Thomson's System of

Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phenomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition; so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to every man who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavored to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, x. D.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

III. It will be delivered to subscribers at $12 to non-subscribers at $14, in boards. The London edition sells for $18.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mild est purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebr or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Ocularia or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.
HAIN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

30 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, near Piscataway, Md. on or about the 1st day of March, 1818, a dark mulatto man named Nick, five feet ten or eleven inches high, slender made, a little deaf, speaks a little through his nose, has been in the habit of wearing rings in his ears, but may have taken them out to avoid discovery. Said negro Nick has a wife on Mr. Thomas A. Diggs's land, near Fort Washington, and is probably harbored in that neighborhood. I will give the above reward of Thirty Dollars, if taken out of the State of Maryland, and Twenty if taken in the State, more than ten miles from home—it within ten miles of home, Ten Dollars.

JNO. H. BEANES.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the night of the 7th June inst. an apprentice to the Printing Business, named JOHN SETON, born in Ireland, between 16 and 17 years old, dark complexion, eyes and hair. Had on and took with him, a long blue cloth coat, second quality, gray ribbed pantaloons, striped summer vest, cotton stockings, ruffled shirt, a roran hat, besides coarse shirts, a great coat of brown cloth, with a velvet collar, and silver hook and eye, a pair of blue cloth trousers, and other clothing not recollected. It is believed he is gone to New-York.
